CHATHAM COUNTY

SAMPLE BALLOT

MAY 24, 2022 PRIMARY ELECTION

VOTE FOR CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATES

There are a total of 23 offices up for election, So we thought we would do our best to help you out.

Governor: Vote Smart - Our plea is for voters to "vote smart" and not vote for a long shot who will not win in November. That long-shot vote will also help the person that they may not want to win, to win in May, as well. - One more point, any candidate that thinks there was no substantial fraud in the 2020 and 2021 elections and who is not in favor of audits and other measures that promote transparency in our elections, will not fight for us. We do not support any such candidates.

We know that it is important to elect conservatives at every level of government and not just the major offices, including judgeships, board of elections, board of education members, and commissioners,

There are three types of ballots to choose from in the May elections.

1. Republican (includes nonpartisan races)
2. Democrat (includes nonpartisan races)
3. Nonpartisan (includes only nonpartisan races)

Anyone is free to ask for any type of ballot. So a Democrat can vote a Republican ballot and vice versa. The type of ballot you select on May 24th or earlier will determine the type of ballot you must use in the event of a runoff on June 21st. For example, if you use a Democrat ballot on May 24th, you cannot use a Republican ballot to vote in the Republican runoff, if there is one. If you select a Nonpartisan ballot on May 24th or did not vote on May 24th then you are free to vote in the runoff and select a Republican or Democrat ballot.

Parents Beware! The First "Transition Closet"

On February 25, 2022 CBN NEWS, The Christian Perspective, report of the "first school-based transition closet" at Fremont High School in Oakland began with this paragraph:

"A California public high school has started a „transition closet" to help teenagers hide their gender experimentation efforts from their parents¹. The school will provide clothes for transgender, non-binary, and gender exploring youth to change into outfits that match their preferred gender identity „to make them feel more like themselves."²

"The Transition Closet" organization which began at the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Fayetteville, Arkansas, posted the following on Facebook: "The near future holds transition closet(s) and services throughout the school district [Oakland Unified School District] for students of the trans/ nonbinary/intersex and additional LGBTQIA+ community members. We are currently in need of clothing donations to help kick start the first School Based Transition Closet."

What happened to Georgia's "Save Girls' Sports Act"?

S.B. 435, as passed the Senate in its original form on February 24th, included this statement:

"As used in this subsection, the term „gender" means a person's biological sex which shall be recognized solely based on a person's reproductive biology and genetics at birth ... a student's biological sex on the student's official birth certificate shall be deemed to have correctly stated the student's biological sex at birth if the statement was included on such birth certificate at or near the time of the student's birth."

That statement was left out when S.B. 435 was amended onto H.B. 1084. If that statement and the remainder of S.B. 435 had been amended onto Code Section 20-2-315, as Senator Marty Harbin intended when he introduced it, Georgia's Girls Sports Act would have restricted girls' sports to biological females. However, "gender," which indicates behavior, is used erroneously as a synonym for biological sex in the final bill and in Code Section 20-2-315.

The re-worded S.B. 435 amended onto H.B. 1084 creates a ten-member to-be-appointed executive oversight committee to decide who plays on which athletic teams, as follows:

"If the athletic association determines that it is necessary and appropriate to prohibit students whose gender is male [trans-male?] from participating in athletic events that are designated for students whose gender is female [trans-female?], then the athletic association may [notice "may," not shall] adopt a policy to that effect; provided, however, that such policy shall be applied to all of the athletic association's participating public high schools."

If the original S.B. 435 had passed, this would have become law: "No local public school system, local public school, or participating private school in this state shall operate, sponsor, or facilitate interscholastic or intramural athletics that permit a person whose gender is male to participate in any interscholastic or intramural athletics that are designated for females, unless there is not an equivalent interscholastic or intramural athletic program for males."

However, the original language of S.B. 435 did NOT pass. Rather than standing for truth and passing a biologically-based bill that distinguishes between males and females, legislators bowed to pressure, watered-down S.B. 435, and failed to protect girls' sports. Pity!

¹ Note the (a) disdain for parental authority, (b) encouraging students to deceive parents, and (c) disregard for the inherent dangers.
